Fee Refund Policy

To apply for a refund, the student must submit a written Notice of Withdrawal to the Principal stating the reason for the request to withdraw. The Institute's refund policy complies with Ministry of Education policy and NZQA regulations.

1. Refund of Tuition Fees

a) Effective before the start date

Cancellations made in writing before the course start date will result in a full refund LESS 10% or $500 whichever is the lesser. If a student's visa application is declined, the school will refund all tuition fees Less 10% or $500 whichever is the lesser.

b) Effective after the start date

For courses of 3 months or longer, students withdrawing within the first ten working days of the course must be refunded in full less a deduction for costs incurred by the PTE, up to a maximum of 25% of the fee total paid. Cancellations must be made in writing.

If a student's visa is declined, the school will refund all unused tuition fees LESS costs up to a maximum of 25% of the fee total paid.

We, the Duke Institute of Studies, will provide to the student details of the cost components for the purpose of working out the maximum deductible percentage.

In the event of a dispute over the cost component deducted, you can refer the matter to the International Education Appeal Authority.

Regardless of the course duration, any student who cancels their enrolment after the first ten working days of course commencement will not be entitled to a refund. (see compassionate grounds below).

A refund may be given after ten working days of course commencement on compassionate grounds at the sole discretion of the Principal. A 30% administration fee will be deducted from unused tuition fees.

2. Early withdrawal and refund requirement

Where a foreign student enrolled at a PTE on a course of study or training, that is less than three months' duration, withdraws from such a course, the following minimum refund entitlement will apply.

a) For courses of up to and including four weeks and six days:

Where a foreign student withdraws within the first two days of the course for which attendance of students at the PTE is required, the PTE may retain up to 50% of the full amount of any payments made by the student to the PTE in respect of the course; and must refund the balance to the student; unless

Two days constitutes the full amount of tuition paid for by the student, in which case the provider may retain 100% of the payment made in respect of the course.

b) For courses of five weeks or more but less than three months:

Where a foreign student withdraws within the first five days of the course for which attendance of students at the PTE is required, the PTE may retain up to 25% of the full amount of any payments made by the student to the PTE in respect of the course; and must refund the balance to the student. We remind PTEs that the eight-day period (that is, eight days from the first day of the course) still applies to course of three months or more.

3. Homestay cancellation or early withdrawal

Cancellation of homestay will result in a full refund LESS the homestay placement fee.

- a) If a student decides to withdraw early from their homestay, during the homestay period, they will receive a full refund of remaining homestay fees, provided two weeks' notice is given.
- b) Relocation by a student into another homestay is not subject to additional fees unless a complaint by the homestay provider is made in which case an additional homestay placement fee is payable.
